

THE FAIREST OF THEM ALL!

A round-up of the recent wedding fayre held at Oatlands Park Hotel in association with Your Surrey Wedding Magazine...

Arriving to a champagne reception with delicious canapés it was easy to immediately relax into the swing of things. After being greeted and welcomed by two charming toastmasters, and with soulful music lifting the atmosphere and setting the scene, it was hard to believe that this wonderful reception was in fact Oatlands Park welcoming brides, grooms (and their mini-entourages) to the Your Surrey Wedding fayre. Unlike other wedding shows, the event was held in a historic hotel which exuded character and opulence. Oatlands Park Hotel is a country house in the heart of Surrey, set in 10 acres of picturesque parkland. The enduring characteristics of this property and grounds make this the perfect location for all occasions including our first wedding fayre!

The wedding show was held in a variety of rooms, including the York Suite, which played host to an array of local exhibitors.

From photographers, wedding planners and cake-makers, to caterers and venue decorators, the choice was endless for brides and grooms looking to fulfil many aspects of their impending wedding day.

At intervals during the day, Belle Du Jour held two fashion shows in the Broadwater Restaurant, showcasing the latest in bridalwear and wedding-day attire. This area was also the key section for grooms' fashion, meaning that there was something for the men to occupy themselves with while their brides-to-be watched the show!

With a constant flow of champers and a stream of brides, grooms and their friends, the bustling atmosphere lasted throughout the day, proving a hit with visitors and exhibitors alike. Oatlands Park were also rightly recognised as marvellous hosts, providing impeccable and presentable staff, along with attention to detail. The hotel was well rewarded with a handful of brides wanting their dream wedding to take place there and booking it on the spot!

This was the first of many successful collaborations between Your Surrey Wedding and Oatlands Park. If you were unable to attend then log on to www.yoursurreywedding.co.uk for further details on up-and-coming wedding fayres.
